Welcome to "AN EVENING OF COMEDY". I have chosen three one act plays and two monologues just for fun and we hope they give you an evening of good hearty laughter.

"Reconteur", "Fettucine", "The Proposal", and "Problems" are produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc. and "Shock of Recognition" is produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

Enjoy,
Eric Bultman

The Sumter Little Theatre is supported by contributions, season ticket sales and is partially funded by grants from the Sumter County Cultural Commission and the Junior Welfare League.

The Sumter Little Theatre's 1992 season will close in 1993. The final play for the 1992 season was originally scheduled for November but had to be postponed.

"I'M NOT RAPPAPORT"
February 11-14 & 18-21, 1993

Don't miss this delightful comedy about two octogenarians. Box office will open for reservations on February 8th. If you have a 1992 season ticket, it's GOOD. General admission is $10.00 for adults and $8.00 for students.

HAVE SHOWS AND SLT WILL TRAVEL:

"An Evening of Comedy"

"The Andrew Is Dead Story"

The "Andrew Is Dead Story" is a factual account of how AIDS is transmitted and how it can be prevented and was performed at SLT in November by a SLT high school ensemble. "Andrew" is at times brutally frank, but does not have offensive language or scenes. This excellent educational tool is followed by a discussion led by a health care specialist.

If you are interested in sponsoring either of these productions, call 775-2150.
